

Peer Interview Check-In Two

Take five minutes to record your answers to the questions below. The video that is uploaded should be the first take. No “mess ups” should be edited out. We want to see your authentic answers to the questions.

1. Hi. Would you mind introducing yourself? Share your name and a bit about your topic choice.
2. What is the most interesting or controversial thing you have learned so far about your topic?
3. What are the two sides, or two ways of looking at this event or issue?
4. Was it easy to find information for both sides? Or, did one version of the story dominate your research?
5. Which side do you agree with and why?
6. Where did you find the most sources? Which database?
7. What primary sources have you found and how were they helpful?
